

Mr. Gary CHEUNG (張家利先生)

Mr. Gary CHEUNG is Senior Consultant of Pullman Financial Services Limited. He is a veteran corporate governance and regulatory compliance practitioner in international financial market covering banking, insurance, securities and asset management industries. Mr. Cheung's wealth of experience means he is well-versed in dealing with almost any issue that may arise in relation to governance, risk and compliance of financial institutions.

Mr. Cheung is legally qualified in Australia (Victoria), New Zealand and People Republic of China. In addition, he is member of among others, Inter-Pacific Bar Association, Hong Kong Securities and Investment Institute, International Compliance Association, Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators, Institute of Certified Management Accountants, Institute of Public Accountants and Royal Asiatic Society Hong Kong Branch. He is married and has two small lovely daughters, and at the present time, apart from his work and family commitments, he is pursuing a doctoral degree in the study of Chinese history.